BRIDGET JONES: MAD ABOUT THE BOY

Bridget Jones navigates life as a widow and single mum with the help of her family, friends, and former lover, Daniel (Hugh Grant). Back to work and on the apps, she's pursued by a younger man and maybe - just maybe - her son's science teacher. Runtime: 141 mins. Doors open 6.45pm Licensed bar 15 £3

We have a lot of interesting events coming up at the hall this quarter and we hope that you will be able to join us for a few of them. We've been very pleased to see numbers steadily growing for some of the regular events recently.

The Murder Mystery Evening returns on Saturday 14th June! Come along and watch the cast on stage as they recount their whereabouts at the time of the murder, and see if you can work out whodunnit! With a bonus competition based on song titles, it's well worth the £5 entry fee, every penny of which goes towards the running of the hall.

There's a VW event taking place on Saturday 28th June where there will be facepainting, refreshments, trophies and classic cars. A donation entry fee is requested for this charity event raising funds for MS.

Saturday 12th July is the Fincham Chorus Summer Concert - which is always very popular so arrive early to get a seat!

Fincham Memorial Hall Summer Fete takes place on Saturday 19th July from 10am - 4pm. Entry is free, and there are still some pitches available for stalls or car boots, contact Anne for more details: anne.finchammemorialhall@gmail.com.

There is only one National Theatre screening this quarter, as the July release has been postponed. Gillian Anderson stars in the iconic role as Blanche DuBois in A Streetcar Named Desire on 7th June. After that, we should have more NT screenings scheduled from September.

We are in the final stages of drawing up the Architects Plans for the hall, taking on board all of your comments. We hope to be able to have another public event to show you them soon.

As ever, thanks go to all of our volunteers who help to run the hall putting on our wide range of events, and all those who come along and often help pack away at the end.

Its much appreciated and we hope we offer something for everyone in the village. If there is anything you would like to organise at the hall, just let us know. Details of the current committee members are below, or you can drop a note through our letterbox.
